

Dominique DeRosa, a Longwood High School senior, signs a Letter of Intent to attend Ball State University, where this Junior Olympian will compete with the school's Gymnastics Team. She is undecided about her major. Ms. DeRosa, who has trained as a gymnast since the age of six, competes throughout the nation at a Level 10, (the highest). She trains at GMGC in Huntington. Her favorite apparatus is the uneven bars. While Longwood High School does not have a gymnastics team, she is presented with a varsity letter by Kevin McCarthy, Director of Athletics and Pupil Services, (left, standing), in recognition of her high level of athletic competition. Above, she is congratulated by, from left, seated, Principal Donald Murphy; her mother, Lori DeRosa, of Ridge; Mr. McCarthy and Joel Gonzalez, her guidance counselor.
